Bill 93-7-S
PROVIDING PROFESSOR EVALUATIONS FOR STUDENTS
INTRODUCED: APRIL 6, 1993

PURPOSE: For the Student Government Association to provide the means for student to evaluate their purpose in a public setting.

WHEREAS: The process will involve placing tables in the lobby of DUC with paper stretched across them, and allowing students to write comments about their most or least favorite professors, and encouraging students to back their statements with solid reasons, and

WHEREAS: Since Western students are unable to see faculty evaluations, this will allow the student body to conduct their own, and

WHEREAS: This will allow students to have a better understanding of who to take for their classes during registration.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that the Student Government Association establish the means for students to evaluate their professors, so the student body will have a better understanding of who to take for their courses.

RESOLUTION 92-01-F
TWO-WEEK DEADLINE FOR DROPPING A CLASS
INTRODUCED: September 8, 1992

PURPOSE: For Western Kentucky University, in upcoming semesters, to allow at least two-weeks for students to drop a class without a grade designation.

WHEREAS: Due to the fact that many students cannot get a clear understanding of the commitments of their schedules after only a week, and

WHEREAS: The existence of odd-numbered school weeks may limit a student to only two class visits, or in the case of a night class, only one, and

WHEREAS: The teachers involved may not be able to adequately convey to their students the expected responsibilities in such limited class visits, and

WHEREAS: A minimal two-week extension of the period to drop a class without a grade designation would address these constraints.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that we, the members of the Student Government Association, in the interest of Western Kentucky University's present and future students, do hereby recommend that the semester deadline for dropping a course without a grade designation be no sooner than two weeks after the official first day of that semester.
